JACKI HEADLEY UNIVERSITY ART GALLERY: Aksum Belle - Afterwards, artist and printmaker Jacob Meders is a member of the Mechoopda Indian Tribe. Using book forms, prints and sculpture, Meders' work challenges perceptions of place, culture and identity built on the assimilation and homogenization of Indigenous peoples. Linked exhibit with Janet Turner Print Museum. Through 2/22. Chico State.

JANET TURNER PRINT MUSEUM: Memento - Before, exhibition is curated from the museum's collection by Jacob Meders, a member of the Mechoopda Indian Tribe. Meders describes linked exhibits at University Art Gallery and the Turner function "as a before and after" that suggests ways to "see, share, and learn—to open a dialogue that allows a healing process." Through 2/22. Free. 400 W. First St. theturner.org

MUSEUM OF NORTHERN CALIFORNIA ART: Collectors A Fresh Take, a collaborative exhibit looks at art from the youthful eye of students to the experienced eye of the collectors, curated by art and art history students from Chico State and Butte College, and collectors Bob Klang, Reed Applegate, Pat and Richard Macias, Idie Adams, Alan Carrier and Nathan Heyman. Through 1/20. $5. 900 Esplanade. monca.org

ORLAND ART CENTER: Celebrating the Season, works by Denise Granger Kerbs, plus Magalia watercolorist Lynn Miller, acrylics by Sandy Obester from Douglas City and Sacramento artist Linda Clark Johnson's cyanotype and collage images. Through 1/24. 732 Fourth St., Orland. orlandartcenter.com

PARADISE ART CENTER: Out of the Box, artists reflect what the term means to them through this exciting exhibit. Through 2/2. 5564 Almond St., Paradise. paradise-art-center.com

Museums

CHICO CREEK NATURE CENTER: Dead or Alive, take part in a fun game of "Guess That Critter" and see if you can figure out which skull and which fur belong to what animal. Through 1/19. 1968 E. Eighth St.
