

Who's your sports hero?

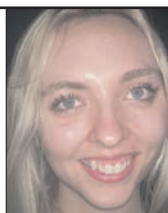

Asked at The Banshee

Truman Lyford student

Priest Holmes, a great running back from the Kansas City Chiefs, who I grew up watching. I always admired him and thought he was a cool player.

The amazing figure skater Michelle Kwan. I always looked up to her as a little kid. She was so determined and focused on what she wanted to do. She had so much incredible strength and grace at the same time.

Rocky Pisto
beekeeper

Muhammad Ali for his boxing mastery and the fact that he was willing to stand up and take the consequences for his beliefs. He resisted the Vietnam War draft, and went to jail for it. That took time away from his career, but he came right back to the top again.

Alex Van Wanderlen line cook

Snowboarder Shaun White for how well he did in the X Games and the Olympics. I've been a fan since I started snowboarding at 14, about 16 years ago. He went bigger, higher and did crazier tricks than everyone else.
