Susan Hearne

Attorney at Law

Before Susan Hearne was an attorney, she served 25 years as a peace officer for the State of California. She worked for Riverside CA Probation Department and taught college for 15 years. Time and again she has helped families, students, & professionals with criminal charges.

In the months following the Camp Fire, Susan has experienced a shift in the types of cases crossing her desk. Many residents on the ridge lost their homes and some were put in untenable living situations. The loss of home, neighborhood, and jobs, resulted in a great emotional and financial loss.

In an unfortunate perfect storm of events some are now dealing with the aftermath of the fire's destruction. People, with legal history or not, are finding themselves in precarious legal situations as a byproduct.

We're here to help with criminal defense issues. If you are in need, Ms. Hearne and her team will be there for you.

Chris Hostettler

Owner

Chris Hostettler, owner of Chico Grocery Outlet, was born and raised in Chico. He graduated from the same high school where his father taught for over 30 years and worked his way through college bagging groceries at the local Albertsons'.

What Chris would most like you to know about his store is that it carries a huge selection of organic products. Look for the NOSH (Natural, Organic, Specialty, Healthy) logo throughout the store for natural organic foods. You'll find 40-50% OFF the same organic products other stores carry.

You'll also find healthy products such as protein powders and power bars, Humboldt organic milk, and often the vegetables and meat are locally sourced.

All at prices that will beat other grocery stores handsily.

Much of the stock is "opportunistic", meaning great deals on brand name items disappear as quickly as they come. So it's best to shop often.

There is always something new to be found but the great service with a smile never changes!

She grew up in the Northstate, which has aided her in connecting with and effectively guiding her clients through an ever-changing market. She has met many people in her 15 years as a realtor and is forever grateful for the relationships she's built and the memories she's experienced.

Celestino Gencarelli & Enzo Perri

Owners

The boys from Jersey had a simple plan...make the best authentic New York thin-crust pizza for the people of Chico. They did, and on April Fool's Day in 1997 Celestino's Pizza opened for business. Luckily for Chicoans it was no April Fools Joke. There's a reason they've been voted #1 BEST Pizza in Chico by CN&R readers 15 years! The recipes are authentic and time-tested. Favorites include fresh salads, salad/slice combo, chicken parmigiana hot sandwiches, homemade lasagna, calzones, and of course spaghetti with Meatballs.
