Marilyn & Susan Evers

Caring for pets is our family tradition

At Evers Veterinary Clinic, caring for pets is our family tradition. Established in 1956 Dr. Hank Evers and wife Marilyn began their dream to provide quality veterinary care to people of the their hometown. In 1981 their daughter, Dr. Susan Evers, joined the practice. Thus began a unique environment of a true family business.

Dr. Evers retired in 1992, but he and Marilyn continued to own the practice and were actively involved. Upon Dr. Evers' passing in 2006, the business and its legacy were left to his wife and daughter. The current veterinarians who offer professional veterinary care are Dr. Susan Evers, Dr. Paul Wise, Dr. Anne Ripke, Dr. Julia Hutler, Dr. Amy Schantz, and Dr. Clarence Luther.

Throughout the years, we have continued the tradition of providing the highest quality veterinary care for generations of our clients and their pets. The confidence and friendship of those we have touched is the foundation of our success.

Nick Andrew Kevin Riley Mike Wear

Owners

La Salles has provided wonderful memories for many over the years, and now new memories can be created! Owners Nick Andrew, Kevin Riley and Mike Wear have been working hard to bring you a fresh destination for dining, drinking, and socializing. Re-opened in March, 2018, La Salles is a warm and welcome place to enjoy indulgent eats, creative cocktails, a finely curated beer and wine selection, and local live music.

"We feel that we are in touch with our customers and want to provide them with the same quality product and atmosphere we expect when we go out to dine or grab a drink," said Andrew. "We truly enjoy watching the community take part in our new venture. While we respect the history that La Salles brings to Chico and have embraced its memories, we have been dreaming of this new space for so long that it is refreshing to see it finally open and providing new memories for our patrons."

If you are looking for great food and a fun atmosphere to enjoy a night out with friends or loved ones, stop by for a great downtown experience!

Butte Creek Canyon's Centerville Museum

Butte Creek Canyon's Centerville Museum is located 9 miles from the intersection of Skyway and Honey Run Road in Chico, the entrance to Butte Creek Canyon. Though the recent Camp Fire has destroyed almost 200 homes in the canyon, as well as the beautiful and historic Honey Run Covered Bridge, the Centerville Colman Museum and Schoolhouse are still standing. The museum is open each weekend from 1:00 to 4:00 to welcome visitors of all kinds. School groups, retirement home groups, families and individuals are invited to enjoy the interesting displays which describe much of Butte County's history.

Butte Creek Canyon is a community of approximately 400 residents. The area is known for beautiful Butte Creek, the Honey Run Covered Bridge, and the Centerville Colman Museum which houses collections of Indian artifacts and baskets, antique cooking utensils, Chinese artifacts, Civil War memorabilia, gold mining equipment, a Bridges of Butte Creek Canyon exhibit, and many other historical artifacts and information reflecting the history of the area.

Take a short drive from the Skyway up Honey Run Road to Centerville Road to visit the Centerville Museum which tells the history of Chico's beautiful Butte Creek Canyon.

Kasey Pulliam- Reynolds Nathan Pulliam

Owners

Nathan Pulliam and Kasey Pulliam-Reynolds, owners of Shubert's Ice Cream & Candy, are the fourth generation carrying on a family tradition of serving up great homemade ice cream and candy. Nathan and Kasey credit their ability to multitask and juggle lots of treats at once as a key to their success.

In the eighty one years Shubert's has been in business, they've seen generations of customers come into the shop and make Shubert's a part of their lives. Shubert's makes their ice cream in the same machine Leonard C. Shubert started with in 1938, and to this day their ice cream is made with careful attention to quality. All of Shubert's sweet treats are hand made with high quality products, many of them local. Much of the butter, cream, honey and nuts are purchased from family-owned farms surrounding Chico. The fourth generation plans to stay rooted in that same tradition while always keeping their eyes open for future opportunities.

Come into the shop and make Shubert's part of your family tradition!
