

Visited areas affected by Camp Fire?

Asked at Chico Mall

Andrew Rogers

I have been up there a couple of dozen times delivering appliances to survivors. It's a sad sight, but I can feel the strong will of the people to rebuild.

Aracely Arteaga

No, I'd rather not. It's very devastating, and they are my neighbors. If I went there for my own personal curiosity, it would be disrespectful to the people who were affected. I would like to be there for them any other way I can.

I have. It's really devastating, but you see a lot of people building and getting back into the grind of what they're doing. So it's really inspirational, but at the same time you understand a lot of people are going through things.

Eric Rodriguez

I haven't worked up my courage to get up there. I grew up in the area and it's kind of hard to imagine what the community is going through. I grew up playing soccer against Paradise High and coached soccer at Chico High. Last year, we played there and I didn't realize it would be the last time I would see that school.
