ADULT HUMOR

Chances are you have seen Jay Larson somewhere. A mainstay on Conan O'Brien's show, the comedian, actor and writer also hosted Esquire Network's Best Bars in America and will soon star in the second season of Showtime's Twin Peaks, so the man has range. His stand-up is the straightforward kind that explores the dark side of marriage, family life and getting older with brutal honesty. Witness Larson bring the funny at the El Rey Theater on Saturday (April 6).

"Mozart Requiem feels all-encompassing, overcome with broad, sweeping emotion."

— Rochester City Newspaper

Made famous again in the movie Amadeus, Mozart Requiem was composed in the belief that he was writing his own funeral mass. He died at the age of 35, the work unfinished. This performance will be directed by David Scholz, and performed with a live orchestra and soloists.
