Best concert I've ever been to was the Made in America [Festival] with Beyoncé and Jay-Z in Philadelphia. Super fun, exciting, lasted hours and had lots of artists come on.

Waking the Cadaver, a hard-core metal show when I was 18 at the Rialto Theatre in Arizona. Some "bros" didn't like them and threw a canister of tear gas into the crowd. I saw it sail in and the whole crowd started surging. I think they got one song off then everybody had to leave. But it was the best concert I ever saw!

Alex Aiono, an up-and-coming viral pop artist. I saw him in Santa Rosa at the Luther Burbank Center for the Arts. I actually got to meet him and he was really nice. He was really high-energy and had good chemistry with the other artist [on the bill], Sabrina Carpenter.

Bruno Mars for my 16th birthday in San Jose in 2015. He put on a really awesome performance and huge laser show. I was in the nosebleed seats, but just being in the same room with him was really awesome.
