

What was your first car?

Asked during Chico Comedy Festival, Chico City Plaza

Dan Dorsey
business owner

It was a 1967 VW Beetle that was a money pit, but I loved it. Great car to learn how to build by putting all the parts on yourself.

A beige Delta 88 Oldsmobile, when I was 16. It was a tank. And Consumer Reports said it was more safe than a tank! It was my dad's, and he wouldn't know, but I'd steal it every night and go to New York City.

Travis Dowdy student

An '86 Chevy Cavalier hatchback called "Pug" that I got for $1 from my parents' best friends. I put too many speakers in it, and it died within eight months. I ran that thing into the ground so hard that the digital speedometer switched from miles per hour to kilometers per hour.

Caleb Mains caregiver

An ugly, old, two-toned Cadillac I got when I was 16. I had it for a semester, it got stolen, and a couple of days later we found it by the railroad tracks.
