

What are you planting this spring?

Asked at Thursday Night Market

Jennifer Artiga
waitress

If I get the chance, I want to plant aloe vera because I have been using it with my boyfriend. We started using it on our faces, and I want to use it on my hair.

John Davis
theater geek

Tomatoes and new beginnings, because we could always use a new beginning and a new day. I love tomatoes. I'll eat them raw off the vine with nature's seasoning.

Joanna Jiminez
homemaker

I won't be planting anything this spring, but I will be planting myself underneath a tree. I plan to stay nice and cool and enjoy this lovely weather. I have houseplants, but I like them on the inside.

Gretchen Lightcap stained-glass artist

I've already planted my entire vegetable garden, with 10 different kinds of hot peppers, including the Carolina Reaper, which is the hottest pepper known to man. Plus, 15 different kinds of potatoes, zucchini and pumpkins.

* Annual Percentage Yield (APY) effective 05/13/2019. CDs offered by Edward Jones are bank-issued and FDIC-insured up to $250,000 (principal and interest accrued but not yet paid) per depositor, per insured depository institution, for each account ownership category. Please visit www.fdic.gov or contact your financial advisor for additional information. Subject to availability and price change. CD values are subject to interest rate risk such that when interest rates rise, the prices of CDs can decrease. If CDs are sold prior to maturity, the investor can lose principal value. FDIC insurance does not cover losses in market value. Early withdrawal may not be permitted. Yields quoted are net of all commissions. CDs require the distribution of interest and do not allow interest to compound. CDs offered through Edward Jones are issued by banks and thrifts nationwide.
