

Worried about war?

Yes, it is a little concerning all the escalation between Iran, us and even our allies. I don't think it should be as bad as it is. I think we should be using more diplomacy and negotiation instead of rhetoric and egos.

John Myers
musician

I'm not really worried about war. What will be will be. In the end, the first shall be last, and the last shall be first. With my faith belief system I'm not worried. I'm just looking forward to the end, so to speak.

Loretta Read
retired RN

Yes, I am. I feel like tensions are escalating between us and Iran. I'm more of a peace kind of a person, so yes, I am worried.

Jaymes Clements
operations

Most definitely. The issue is that with this administration you really don't know how something is going to escalate. Sometimes you hear even from the president's mouth: "I heard about how many people might have died, so I called it off." Which means something was already operationally ready to go.
