

Worst song ever?

Asked at Blue Room Theatre

Dillon Collins comedian

“Let It Go,” from the Frozen movie, is the worst song of all time. Now, I’ve never actually heard the entire song, but the fact that people feel the need to insert the lyrics into everyday life makes me sick.

Jerm Leather stand-up comedian

It’s “Achy Breaky Heart,” by Billy Ray Cyrus. Because if it weren’t for that song there would not be Miley Cyrus, and an entire generation would not have suffered through all that.

“Sweet Home Alabama,” by Lynyrd Skynyrd. I’ve never thought to myself: “You know what song I haven’t heard in a long time? ‘Sweet Home Alabama.’” If I never heard it again, I would be completely fine.

Mitch Valentine entrepreneur

“Pony,” by Gnuine, because it reminds me of an encounter in Southside Oroville that I wish I could forget.
