THIS SHOW KILLS FASCISTS

The "mournful folk and riotous punk" ensemble Wayfairy (pictured) started as a solo project of Quiver Watts, who used to play her banjo along the turn-pikes as she hitched rides from town to town along the Keystone Pipeline performing protest music. The Oakland-based crew is now a six-piece that carries on in the same spirit of resistance with a range of queer/feminist, anti-state, anti-fascist tunes. Catch the group live at Blackbird tonight (Jan. 9), along with Chico's own Mechanical Goldfish singing "sadbkid songs about nihilism and surviving in a space meant to kill you."
