Christian & Johnson Floral & Gift

Christian & Johnson started as a nursery in 1907 by one of Annie Bidwell's gardeners, Mr. F.G. Peterson. Originally located along the banks of Lindo Chanel, C&J was relocated to Vallombrosa Avenue in 1913. Senator Ray Johnson and his wife, Lorraine (Christian) Johnson, purchased the business in 1948, and gave it its name. Current owner Melissa Heringer was hired as a designer at C&J in 1998, and purchased the business in 2005, where she is proud to be carrying on such a great 'Old Chico' tradition. In 2018, the historic business was relocated into its current location, a beautifully renovated 1940's Chico home, at the corner of East 1st Avenue and Neal Dow Avenue.

The design team at Christian & Johnson is experienced, creative, and focused on maintaining a high standard of quality. In addition to the Floral Shop, C&J has an outstanding Gift Shop that carries a wide selection of gifts, decor, seasonal items and greeting cards.

Feel free to stop by Christian & Johnson to browse their beautiful shop, smell the flowers, enjoy the free gift-wrapping, and get inspired.

Thank you, Chico, for over a century of business!

Kasey Pulliam-Reynolds Nathan Pulliam OWNERS

Nathan Pulliam and Kasey Pulliam-Reynolds, owners of Shubert's Ice Cream & Candy, are the fourth generation carrying on a family tradition of serving up great homemade ice cream and candy. Nathan and Kasey credit their ability to multitask and juggle lots of treats at once as a key to their success.

In the eighty two years Shubert's has been in business, they've seen generations of customers come into the shop and make Shubert's a part of their lives. Shubert's makes their ice cream in the same machine Leonard C. Shubert started with in 1938, and to this day their ice cream is made with careful attention to quality. All of Shubert's sweet treats are hand made with high quality products, many of them local. Much of the butter, cream, honey and nuts are purchased from family-owned farms surrounding Chico. The fourth generation plans to stay rooted in that same tradition while always keeping their eyes open for future opportunities.

Come into the shop and make Shubert's part of your family tradition!
