Butte Humane Society is very close to finally having a home of our own after more than 100 years! We could not have made it where we are today without the support and partnership of the Chico News and Review.

Having a free, independent local newspaper has enriched our community. No one knows what the days to come hold, but we hope the Chico News and Review (CNR) will continue to find a way to be a part of our collective future.

Regardless of what lies ahead, Butte Humane Society is so proud to be part of this significant issue of this paper and to have the ability to acknowledge how much CNR has contributed to our community for decades.
