Planning a “COVID summer” do-over?

Asked in downtown Chico

A lot of travel mostly. I'm from the U.K., and I was trying to get to South America last year and couldn't get there. I'm still trying to get there at the moment, which is why I'm here staying with friends.

There were a bunch of festivals and stuff canceled last summer—High Sierra got canceled. I'm not sure if they're back this year.

Gary Melser
retired

We had a cruise to Europe canceled last October that's been rescheduled to this coming October. So, not canceled altogether. They just gave us credit for another one.

Bryce Dunnaway
student

I was in the [Butte College] paramedic class and that got canceled. There's a lottery to get into the class, kinda like the nursing program, and I got in, but they wiped all the names when the class got canceled. So I'm just applying again hoping to get in this time.

KZFR and the CN&R is the perfect collaboration between two community-focused media outlets at a time when independent local journalism is more important than ever.

CN&R
Chico News & Review
ON THE

RADIO

Thursdays, 5:30–6pm
90.1FM and kzfr.org

Local news and arts coverage presented much like the newspaper version of the CN&R, with interviews with the people in the stories and with the writers reporting them, updates and commentary on local issues, community dialogue, arts/music previews and reviews, and spotlights on upcoming community events and entertainment.

Hosted by CN&R Interim Editor,
Jason Cassidy
