

Are you doing any gardening this spring?

Asked in downtown Chico

Debby Adema
registered nurse

Oh my gosh, yes. I have a massive garden and there are just two of us. We're growing six varieties of lettuce—and we can already have a salad out of that—[and] beans, carrots, broccoli, cauliflower and tomatoes and tomatoes and tomatoes.

Jacob Gregory
barista

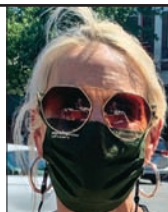

I'm not, no. But my mom has a fat garden with a whole bunch of stuff. I'm not good at that. If I could grow something, it would be bell peppers and onion.

David Halimi
small business owner

No. I would grow tomatoes, zucchini and eggplant. I never had the time to do it, but I could see how it could be fun and relaxing. I definitely enjoy having organic vegetables.

Isabella Stewart artist

Yes, I am. I'm growing a ton of herbs and sweet peas and cucumbers and tomatoes. I haven't had a garden in six years. It's a beautiful garden—if I had a picture, I would give it to you.
