“Guilty” – Michael Bone

A ton of drama packed into one 3 1/2-minute art-rock song.
michaelbone.bandcamp.com/album/10-vii

“X-Files” – Furlough Fridays

The turn-up-the-stereo by the pool jam of the summer.
ffyeah.com/colibri-wp/music/

“Gravity” – Astronaut Ice Cream

Electro-disco pop is allowed into the backyard party on genre alone.
astronauticecream.bandcamp.com/album/blue

“Hank” – The Tightys

I’ve said it before: This gritty guitar riff smells of weed and cheap beer, and that’s just what everyone’s summer needs.
thetightys1.bandcamp.com/track/hank

“Rumba de Changó” – Blu Egyptian

A hyper Latin-influenced jam that brings much-needed juice to Chico’s dance floor.
bluegyptian.bandcamp.com/releases

“Apocalyptic” – West by Swan

Is there such a thing as energetic stoner rock?
westbyswan.bandcamp.com/album/cancellation

“Hurry” – Lagrima

A busted bottom-heavy slow jam for discordant times.

“Real Love” – Scout

The third pandemic release from the prolific local songwriter ends with the unadorned title cut and the simplest—and best—notion there is.
