THE SPIRIT OF NATIVE ART

For its latest group show, The Spirit of Pacific Western Traders, the Museum of Northern California Art (MONCA) has turned its space over to Shingle Springs Band of Miwok Indians, Concept: Art + Movement, the Mechoopda Indian Tribe of Chico Rancheria and curators Meyo Marrufo and Jennifer Bates. The exhibit explores how the Pacific Western Traders store—founded in 1971 in Folsom and now one of the premier venues for California Indian arts—impacted generations of Native artists with its shows, classes, demonstrations and art markets. On display through Jan. 23.
