Juliana Mejia
barista

To start going to school, finally. I want to go to cosmetology school. I'm hoping that by the new year, I'll have every thing a little more figured out.

Jesus Alvarez
warehouse worker

For sure to get a better job, and also go back to school. I want to be a lineman.

Josh Flores
student

One of them is to get in shape at the gym. That's the big one for me. I'm already working on it, but I want to get more focused.

Megan Donaldson

Healthy living, healthy eating, healthy whatever, and just continuing to do well in my school work.

passing is a huge loss for his family, friends, everyone at the station and our community as a whole.

In the seven years Mash was a KZFR volunteer programmer, he selflessly produced a variety of public affairs shows all focused on improving the lives of the less fortunate in our community. You can find much of his work on "Without A Roof," "Imagining Community" and "Youth For Justice" among others, on the KZFR website or on one his YouTube channels.

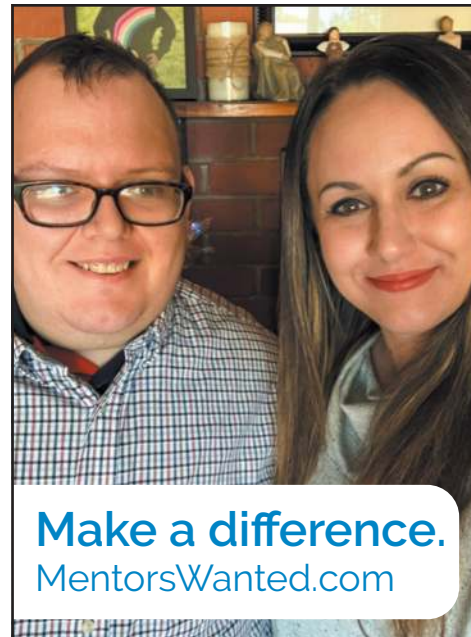

Guillermo was an amazing force of creativity and compassion that touched so many in our little community. [We] first met him during a KZFR pledge drive. He walked in the door, saw how crazy hard everyone was working and he immediately jumped into action to help. [This] kind stranger (who simply introduced himself as Bill) was so willing to give so much of himself. [We] will miss you, Guillermo, and [we] will try to be better human[s].

We were proud to have had Guillermo be a part of the Zephyr. [We] would love when the phone would ring and Guillermo would be on the other end saying "I've got an idea." Guillermo was a soldier for the downtrodden, an ambitious spirit, and an energetic force for good. He was a righteous person, and he will truly be missed at our station and in our community.
