JUL/26: CRACKER & CAMPER VAN BEETHOVEN

The two groups led by singer-guitarist David Lowery return to the area this weekend. With songs like "Take the Skinheads Bowling" and their cover of Status Quo's "Pictures of Matchstick Men," Camper Van Beethoven's eclectic mix of alternative rock, punk, folk, country and world music made them darlings of 1980s college radio. After CVB broke up in 1990, Lowery went on to form Cracker with guitarist Johnny Hickman. The country and Americana-influenced alternative rock band enjoyed more commercial success in the 1990s with hits like "Teen Angst," "Low" and "Euro-Trash Girl." These days, Lowery teaches as a lecturer at the University of Georgia and is a vocal champion of artists rights in the internet age, yet he continues to tour and record with his bands. Cracker (pictured) and Camper Van Beethoven will perform at 9 p.m. on Friday, July 26, in the Crown Room at the Crystal Bay Casino, 14 Highway 28, Crystal Bay. Tickets are $25-$30.
