SEP/6: HOGS FOR THE CAUSE

Crystal Bay Casino presents the two-day event featuring New Orleans-inspired food and soulful tunes. The original Hogs for the Cause began in New Orleans in 2009 as a benefit for the family of Ben Sarraat, a young boy with an incurable form of brain cancer. The charity event continues to financially aid the families of these children who have been afflicted with this disease. Hogs for the Cause is now one of the largest barbecue competitions and music festivals in the country. In 2014, Crystal Bay Casino General Manager Bill Wood met members of Silence of Da Lambs, one of the teams that compete in the annual event, while he was visiting New Orleans. He and crew stayed in touch and decided to bring the event to the North Shore of Lake Tahoe in 2016. Now in its fourth year, Hogs For The Cause West will kick off at 6:30 p.m. on Friday, Sept. 6, with a Steakhouse Gala, and will continue at noon on Saturday, Sept. 7, with the Hogs for the Cause BBQ Competition, featuring local teams smoking whole hogs and cooking other barbecue fare. There will also be a silent auction and music by funk-rock band Collectivity. Tickets for the Friday night gala are $125. Admission is free to the barbecue competition on Saturday. Proceeds from these events go to the Hogs for the Cause charity. The celebration wraps up with a concert featuring San Francisco's Con Brio (pictured) and The Stone Foxes at 8 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 7, in the Crown Room at the Crystal Bay Casino, 14 Highway 28, Crystal Bay. Tickets for the show are $20-$25. Call (775) 833-6333 or visit www.crystalbaycasino.com/hogs-for-the-cause.
