JAN/18: PENNYWISE
 The Southern California punk band will play a few West Coast shows, including one at Lake Tahoe, before heading off to Australia next month. The band's latest release Never Gonna Die is the first full album of new songs with singer Jim Lindberg, guitarist Fletcher Dragge, drummer Byron McMackin and bassist Randy Bradbury in over a decade. Produced by longtime Pennywise collaborator Cameron Webb, Never Gonna Die came to life in the same space where the band penned classic songs with late bassist Jason Thirsk. With their quintessential power to merge the subversive and the celebratory, Pennywise have built the album on fast-paced anthems expertly engineered to inspire radical change, personal empowerment, relentless hijinks and reckless fast times. Pennywise, along with special guests Adolescents, Guttermouth and Slaughterhouse, will perform at 7:30 p.m. on Saturday, Jan. 18, in the showroom at MontBleu Resort Casino & Spa, 55 Highway 50, Stateline. Tickets are $27.50-$30. Visit www.montbleuresort.com.
