Carriage Return: The Art of Typography

MILLS STATION ARTS AND CULTURE CENTER, 3PM,
NO COVER

Clicks and clacks can make up words, but dings imply a line break. With more than 60 typewriters being displayed, this exhibit brings the somewhat antiquated form of typing to the public. There are activities for you to bask in, typography-themed creations from artists and words from Dime Show Review author and editor Kae Sable. Come out Thursday for an open-mic experience to take in the humming power of language. 10191 Mills Station Road in Rancho Cordova, rcmacc.org.
