A Meditation to Help the World

At this time of crisis, many are searching for ways to make a positive difference in the world – while deepening their own spirituality. Thousands across the globe have found a way to accomplish both these goals: Transmission Meditation.

Transmission is a simple, group meditation that provides both a dynamic service to the world and a powerful means of personal spiritual development. It was introduced in 1974 by a great spiritual teacher, a Master of Wisdom. A group of Masters are now emerging into the public arena to help us solve our most critical global problems.

The Masters, led by Maitreya, the World Teacher, have lived for millennia in the remote regions of the world, guiding and inspiring humanity from behind the scenes.

They are a group of incorruptible teachers who have gone ahead of us on the path of spiritual evolution, perfecting themselves to a point where they can demonstrate their divinity on a moment-to-moment basis.

They are entering the everyday world at this critical time to guide humanity through its present crisis, and into a future of peace and brotherhood/sisterhood. They say true peace is possible only when justice prevails for all people. Justice is achieved when there is sharing of the world's resources.

Sharing will create trust. When there is trust among nations, there will be no need for war.

"Peace, Sharing and Justice are central to my teaching. Wherever the Light of these Truths shines I turn my eye, and through the channel of that Light do I send my Love. ... Thus through you do I change the world."

— Maitreya, the World Teacher

Transmission Meditation provides a way for each of us to participate in this transformation of the world, while consciously working in cooperation with the Masters.

It is free, open to all, and will enhance any other spiritual practice in which you might be engaged.
