Pet First Aid & CPR

THE ANIMAL DEN PET RESORT, 11:30AM, $89

When disaster strikes and your furry best friend needs

CLASSES

emergency assistance,

what will you do? Be prepared. Register for this class and get basic training for a variety of pet first aid treatments, including what to do if your pet is choking, bleeding, overheated, not breathing and more techniques. You love them like your own family, now you can be prepared to act when the worst happens. Maybe take a human first aid course, too. 4060 Power Inn Road, animaldenpetresort.com.

SATURDAY, 3/23

19TH CENTURY BASE BALL IN WOODLAND: Check out the “base ball” highlight on page 26—it’s not your usual pick-up game of America’s national pastime, I can promise you that. 11am, no cover. Woodside Park, 1615 Cottonwood St. in Woodland.

TAKE ACTION

THURSDAY, 3/21

AMERICAN RIVER BASIN COLLABORATIVE

MEETING: What’s going on in the American River Basin? You won’t know unless you show up to this meeting, exploring trash management for MS4 trash amendment compliance and homeless camping in the basin. 1:30pm, no cover. 5620 Birdcage St. in Citrus Heights.

CALIFORNIA STATE ARCHIVES SPEAKER SERIES:

Steve and Susie Swatt will speak on their book on the history of women making strides in California: Paving the Way: Women’s Struggle for Political Equality in California. 5pm, no cover. California State Archives, 1020 O St., 4th Floor.

SATURDAY, 3/23

CARDS AGAINST URBANITY: Do you like Cards Against Humanity and also urban planning? Then come join in the fun as Sacramento Fair Planning shares this urban planning-themed card game, pizza and water. You’ll learn a little, laugh a little, smile a lot and chew your food. 12:30pm, no cover. Organize Sacramento, 1714 Broadway.

MONDAY, 3/25

EMPTY BOWLS SUPPER 2019: Help raise funds for River City Food Bank with this dinner or luncheon fundraiser. There will be some 1,400 people participating, taking home handmade bowls and putting a meal in their stomachs for a good cause—it’s the biggest opportunity for the Food Bank to raise money to provide emergency food programs. 5:30pm, $30-$70. Sacramento Convention Center Complex, 1400 J St.
