“OUT THE WINDOW”

New Works by Kim Scott

Birds as messengers between worlds, mysterious and sensual, are taking a central stage in the most recent works by Kim Scott. For the past several years, Scott's work has been defined by her strong connection to nature, the sixth extinction, and human impermanence. The same concepts and iconography continue to inform her work. However, the artist's recent trip to the jungles of Costa Rica, imposed necessity to approach the canvas differently.

Kim Scott completed her MA at Sacramento State University and is well known to the regional audience. She has work in numerous private and public collections including Crocker Art Museum. Artpace 1616 is pleased to host this show.

The exhibit can be viewed from April 4th
to April 28th.

The artist reception is
on Second Saturday,
April 13th from 6-9PM.

Also on view are
works by Chris Daubert, Lynn Beldner, and Steve Brisco.
