

SATURDAY, 4/28

Sacramento Earth Day SOUTHSIDE PARK, 11AM, NO COVER

As of yet, all the humans I've met only have one planet they're really committed to living on. I'll give you a hint about which one it is:

FESTIVALS

It rhymes with "girth" and is exactly the size of the planet you're currently on. Yep, it's Earth. Celebrate the old gal in her time of need as we continue to pollute, ruin habitats and sign away natural beauty to corporations. This celebration features vegan foods, live music, local organizations doing good and much more. Stop by! 700 T Street, ecosacramento.net.

PHOTO COURTESY OF LOUIS REED

much more. 10am, no cover under 18, $3. The Four Points by Sheraton, 4900 Duckhorn Drive.

SUTTER'S FORT TRADERS' FAIRE: Join in the fun at this maker's mart with all manner of artisanal goods made by artisans. There's three days of goods to peruse over three days of the weekend. Stop on by now, y'hear? 10am, $5-$7. Sutter's Fort State Historic Park, 2701 L St.

VERDANT—A NIGHT OF PERFORMANCE, ART AND FRAGRANCE: With music, artwork, comedy, floral arrangements and folks from Brooklyn, New York, this is one pleasant-smelling evening that won't take place in a Yankee Candle store. Join Sea of Bees, Glass Bat, Ziemba, Lou Tides and more at the Red Museum. 8pm, $10. The Red Museum, 212 15th St.

SATURDAY, 4/27

ELK GROVE FITFEST: Want to get fit? Want to go to a place with lots of vendors? Want to participate in some athletic activities while having fun? Sounds like you might just be in the target market for the Elk Grove Fitfest. Targeted ads should be flooding your social media feed any moment—but in the meantime, plan to spend a pleasant day at this festival that features zorb balls. 9am, no cover. Elk Grove Regional Park, 9950 Elk Grove-Florin Road.

KID'S ART FESTIVAL: Kids art is flooding the Fair Oaks market for one day only. Show up for some art-making opportunities, some art shows, performances, food and more. 10am, no cover. Village Park, Main Street in Fair Oaks.

RUMI FILM AND MUSIC FESTIVAL: Join the Verge for a festival focused on Jalal ad-Din Muhammad Rumi, featuring music and film. 7pm, $20-$25. Verge Center for the Arts, 625 S St.

SOL BLUME 2019: Catch a bit of Sol Blume for some rhythm, some blues, some rap and some food. With music from Miguels, Jessie Reyez, Queen Naija, J.I.D. and more, it's a veritable boutique music fest in the heart of Sacramento. 11am, $69-$199. Cesar Chavez Plaza, 910 I St.

SUNDAY, 4/28

SACRAMENTO EARTH DAY: The Earth Day celebration is here. Come celebrate the planet most of us are living on, highlighted on page 33. That's this page. Look up! 11am, no cover. Southside Park, 700 T St.

FOOD & DRINK

FRIDAY, 4/26

2ND ANNUAL SAC MAG AND BREW REVIEW: Check out the event highlight on page 32 for a hefty dose of macaroni and beer. 6pm, $45. River Walk Park, 651 2nd St.

3RD ANNUAL TASTE OF CITRUS HEIGHTS 2019:

Do you like Citrus Heights and want to eat some local food there? Don't just sit around, come eat some food with other people interested in eating food. 6pm, $12.50-$400. Citrus Heights Community Center, 6300 Fountain Square Drive in Citrus Heights.

SACRAMENTO BEER WEEK CRAFT BEER PUB

CRAWL: It's Beer Week 2019, and that means it's time to drink a responsible amount of beer and appreciate that beer for its merits, while also making sure to respect yourself and those around you. That being said, join Old Sacramento pubs for this crawl that features five beers from breweries. 6pm, $12. Old Sacramento Bars, 2nd St.

SATURDAY, 4/27

2019 WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP ABALONE COOK

OFF: Abalones are headed this way—and in greater numbers than you likely would expect. Join this competition for the best of the best abalone chefs and even judge those chefs. 10am, $98. The Magnolia Terrace at Kimpton Sawyer Hotel.

HOPS AND PROPS IPA CRAFT BEER INVITATIONAL:

Beers meet airplanes in the beer-airplane crossover episode of the crossover episode season. Support the Aerospace Museum of California and try some brews from Claimstake Brewing, Alaro Craft Brewery, Burning Barrel Brewing Co. and many, many more. 2pm, $45. McClellan Park, 3200 Freedom Park Drive.

SACRAMENTO BEER WEEK BACK ALLEY BBQ WITH

FIELDWORK BREWING & ZOCALO: Want to spend some time drinking beer, eating barbecued food and listening to music? Well, there's plenty of places to do that, but this place also has it. There's a pig roast and all the food you can consume. 2pm, $40. Fieldwork Brewing Company, 1805 Capitol Ave.

MONDAY, 4/29

DRAKE'S BREWER V BREWER BEER DINNER: See what's what as two Drake's Brewing Company brewers test their brewing

IGNITE YOUR SENSES

AMADOR FOUR FIRES FESTIVAL

SATURDAY
MAY 4

AN IMMERSIVE
FOOD & WINE EXPERIENCE

200 WINES | 5 CHEFS
LIVE MUSIC | ARTISAN VENDORS

AmadorFourFires.com
Historic Amador County Fairgrounds

