

ASKED AT THE SECOND SATURDAY ART WALK: Your creative outlet?

NATHAN HALBUR
singing teacher

It's kind of ironic because [music] is an outlet, but it's also what I do most of the time ... I can always be happy doing music. Like, if other things are stressful, music is always nice.

GEARRA CANNON
tour guide

I think every act you do should be creative. I do like to dress wild, painting, photography, writing, collage—pretty much anything I can get my grubby little mitts on is great.

VINCENT DURAN
graphic designer

It's hard to describe it ... I basically try to create stuff that people try to suppress—I try to put it in your face ... mostly digital, some hand-drawn stuff as well.

farmer

We raise animals in the forest ... We raise pigs and chickens and goats and turkeys. We're creating a different type of food than you normally get; we're creating a food source that is almost wild.

RANDY MEJIA service technician

My creative outlet is photography. I've been doing that for the past couple of months here, trying to get on a consistent grind trying to take photos wherever I can, whenever I can.

DIANE BYNUM CARR

Gardening feeds my soul, I always say I like getting my hands dirty ... It has energy, it relaxes me and the birds come. It's a place for me to center, at any time.
