CALENDAR LISTINGS CONTINUED FROM PAGE 29

Watanabe returns to the Crest. 7pm, $8-$10. Crest Theatre, 1013 K St.

MONDAY, 7/8

DEATH-POSITIVE FILM EXTREMIS: Take in a film that explores the end-of-life decisions humans face in the face of imminent death, unending life support and difficult choices—it's Extremis. 6pm, no cover. Unitarian Universalist Society of Sacramento, 2425 Sierra Blvd.

COMEDY

YOLO BREWING CO.: Brewery Comedy Tour. Grab a beer or a hearty glass of water and sit down to laugh in a brewery. Wednesday 7/10, 7:30pm. 1520 Terminal St. in West Sacramento.

B STREET THEATRE: Seekers of the Strange. It took this Calendar editor a while seeing this recurring show to understand that it is a comedic paranormal investigator show. Featuring improvisation and strange happenings, you should seek it out. Sunday 7/7, 7pm. $12. 2700 Capitol Ave.

BLACKTOP COMEDY: Kevin Fraser. The South African comedian and DJ is from Durban, South Africa, the same place my friend Kaylan's from, I think—I still have his parents' "A" installment of the World Book. Anyway, check out Fraser if you want. Through 7/5. $25. 3101 Sunset Blvd., Suite 6A in Rocklin.

LAUGHS UNLIMITED COMEDY CLUB: Brad Bonar Jr. Bonar is the complete package—funny guy, magician, has a funny name, is a speaker—and you can catch him along with Kris Trinkle at this show. Through 7/6. $10. 1207 Front St.

PUNCH LINE: Gene Pompa. The comedian will perform, catch his somewhat low-key style if you'd like. Through 7/6. $20. Johnny Taylor. This comedian is also going to perform, so check him out if you like his stuff! Check out a video of his first, potentially. Through 7/7. $17.50. 2100 Arden Way, Suite 225.

STAB! COMEDY THEATER: Lights Out (Comedy In The Dark). Again, the lights will not be on for this show, and Ray Molina will host. You get the deal. Saturday 7/6, 9pm. $7. Token Straight Friend. Join some of the nation's best LGBTQ+ comedians but with a twist—there's a token straight person also performing. There will be some Daniel Humbarger, some Melissa McGillicuddy, some Marcus Williams, some Jason Anderson. Saturday 7/6, 8pm. $10-$15. 1710 Broadway.

SACRAMENTO COMEDY SPOT: 3 on 3 Improv Battle-Championship Round. Improv comedy takes a turn, as it becomes a battlefield with teams of three going at it with their "yesses" and their "ands." Friday 7/5, 9pm. $12. The Movie. Catch the Zexy Banditoz as they make an improvised movie for your amusement. It's also probably for their own amusement. Saturday 6/7, 10:30pm. $5. 1050 20th St., Suite 130.

ON STAGE

BADLANDS: Yvie Oddly. Catch the RuPaul's Drag Race finalist as she performs. You could even pay for a meet and greet session if you'd really like to meet then greet Yvie Oddly. Friday 7/5, 8pm. $25. 2003 K St.

CELEBRATION ARTS: Dramatic Stage Reading of Macbeth. Shakespeare is a classic choice for a dramatic stage reading—he's kind of a big deal. Catch this free, filmed production about Macbeth, an African general and his actions that lead him down a path that perhaps he wouldn't have chosen if he'd been able to make a more informed decision. Through 7/6. No cover. 2727 B St.

SACRAMENTO CITY COLLEGE: Shakespeare in Love. Seriously, let's all agree to stop producing and Shakespeare productions. OK? Good. This is the last one we'll ever see—it's a meta-theater piece about the playwright, William Shakespeare (have you heard of him?) as he writes Romeo and Juliet based on his own life experiences. Through 7/28. $20. 3835 Freeport Blvd.

THE TOWER THEATRE: Hamlet-National Theatre Live. What about our agreement? Come on, guys, we just talked about this. OK, join another Shakespeare production, this time

WEDNESDAY, 7/10

Art with a Heart

SIERRA 2 CENTER, 5PM, $25-$35

Want to celebrate some local artwork while benefiting a great cause? Come to My Sister's House's 2019 installment of its Art with a Heart fundraiser. It features artwork along with live music, plenty of people to talk to and more. There's wine and cheese, if those are to your liking, and all of the proceeds go to benefit victims of domestic violence, sexual assault and human trafficking, specifically the Women to Work program. 2791 24th Street, my-sisters-house.org/events/art-with-a-heart-2.
