◀ CALENDAR LISTINGS CONTINUED FROM PAGE 29

this play about the bard writing one of his most famous plays, this time from Green Valley Theatre Company. Through 8/10. $20. Roseville Tower Theatre, 417 Vernon St. in Roseville.

OBLIVION COMICS & COFFEE: Tiny Lives. Catch this production from Empire Arts Collective. It's a free, devised piece—which means that it doesn't cost anything and that it was created spontaneously, improvisationally by this group. Through 7/27. No cover. 1020 11th St.

STAB! COMEDY THEATER: Fierce, Fresh & Fabulous! Get yourself down to one of the draggiest drag revues this side of the Sacramento River, featuring Claire Doe, Blue and Pleather. Also, expect Yayah, Hellen Heels and Suzette Veneti. Saturday 7/27, 7:30pm. $5. 1710 Broadway.

BOOKS

THURSDAY, 7/25

WILLIAM BURG PRESENTS NEW BOOK "WICKED SACRAMENTO": Don't miss this presentation from local historian William Burg, sharing his new book, Wicked Sacramento. It explores Sacramento in the early 1900s, torn between jazz dancing, police and laws. 7pm, no cover. Time Tested Books, 1114 21st St.

SPORTS & OUTDOORS

THURSDAY, 7/25

ADA 29 WALK: Celebrate the 29th year of the Americans with Disabilities Act at this walk bringing awareness about accessibility and more. 10:30pm, no cover. Farmers Market, Capitol Mall.

WATERFRONT YOGA: There's something fishy going on at the Old Sacramento Waterfront—and it's not this free Waterfront Yoga series. It's probably fish in the river. Get stretched out with this series from The Yoga Seed Collective. 6:30pm, no cover. Old Sacramento Waterfront, 1002 Front St.

SATURDAY, 7/27

CHICAS LATINAS' YOGA EN EL CAPITOLIO: Join Chicas Latinas de Sacramento for a fundraiser for the Starting Off on the Right Foot shoe drive. The ticket goes toward new shoes for students at Glenwood Elementary. 9am, $12. California State Capitol Park, 1200 L St.

FAB 40S 5K RUN/WALK: Make your way through the Fab 40s and benefit the Alzheimer's Association of Northern California while you're at it. Run, walk, traverse the course somehow and make strides. 7am, $32-$40. East Lawn Memorial Park, 4300 Folsom Blvd.

SACRAMENTO NATIONAL DANCE DAY: Catch some dance fever at the state Capitol for all kinds of dance. You'll be participating in the yearly tradition, and there are a number of pop-ups throughout the city. 8:30am, no cover. California State Capitol, West Steps, 1315 10th St.

WILDLIFE CARE ASSOCIATION OWL RELEASE: Join Heringer Estates for some sweet release—owl release, that is. The Wildlife Care Association of Sacramento will be releasing some owls to nature at sunset. There will be educational activities, food, wine and more. Register in advance. 4pm, $3-$10. Heringer Estates Vineyards, 37375 Netherlands Road in Clarksburg.

MONDAY, 7/29

SACRAMENTO REGIONAL AEROPRESS COMPETITION: Catch this coffee brewing contest at Camellia Coffee Roasters—it's featured on page 29. 6pm, $10. Camellia Coffee Roasters, 1104 R St.

CLASSES

SATURDAY, 7/27

DEEP LISTENING WORKSHOP: Join Amy Reed for a workshop on listening deeply to things in life. You'll really think about listening to things, probably much more than you've ever done before. 6:30pm, $10. The Library of MusicLandria, 2181 6th Ave.

California's Day of Dance CREST THEATRE, 2PM, $8-$30

California only wants to do one thing this Saturday: get out and just dance, really dance. Catch this one-of-a-kind performance with hops, skips and leaps from local favorites and professional dance troupes. There's Studio T

ON STAGE Urban Dance Academy, Blyuerose Dance Project, Celebration Arts and much more. Catch the dance fever with all styles of fancy footwork, and be sure to check out the seemingly separate Sacramento National Dance Day festivities at the state Capitol in the morning. 1013 K Street, californianationaldayofdance.com.
