FLAMING GRILL CAFE

A huge, juicy burger dripping with a creamy sauce and ridiculous toppings smashed between a buttery brioche bun. You're not dreaming; you're at Elk Grove's Flaming Grill Cafe. These mouth-watering, enormous burgers are made with 10 oz. ground chuck mixed with either bacon or a half-pound of top sirloin. They can be substituted for those sporting untamed tastes, including with elk, wagyu, wild boar, gator and more. Specialty burgers such as the Exotic Sourdough Melt, Chorizo Burger or Carnitas Burger ($14.99) all come with crispy, battered fries or salad or brown rice. With its impossibly large menu, there is something for everyone at this family-friendly restaurant—including extreme tots that make all other tots look like small fries. 2513 W.
