Best local beer name
that makes you chuckle

NUKIN' FUTZ, Track 7 Brewing Company

In honor of Track 7's cheeky approach to naming its creamy, chocolate-and-peanut-butter-hinted porter, we thought we'd pitch the local brewer three more beers with coded names and distinct flavor profiles—and prove why this a job better left to the professionals. Can you guess the schoolyard swears they're based on?

BunofaWitch (7% ABV):
Let this fermenting amber ale breathe before trying. In fact, just go ahead and give it a good, wide berth until the barrel stops shaking of its own demonic volition.

Buckin' Falls (9.4% ABV):
An ox-strong and opaquely brown brew, this one lingers on the palate thanks to a dank, sweat-sock aftertaste that can wilt house plants.

The Sit Heel (37% ABV!!!):
A collision of paradoxes—tastes like a warm Bud Light, demolishes you like a bathtub's worth of moonshine. One pint will have you singing "Don't Stop Believing" at the top of your lungs.
