

ASKED ON ALHAMBRA BOULEVARD IN EAST SAC: Kings season predictions?

MIKE PHILLIPS
medical sales rep

The Kings are gonna do well this year. They have a lot of young talent ... Having played together for a year ... I would expect them to play just above .500 and hopefully make the playoffs.

FRAN BLAINE retired

I think they'll probably do the same record they always have. Because I think they may have gotten better, but I think the teams that they compete with in their division have also gotten better.

JAMIE GRANT
medical worker

I think they'll do good. It's been awhile. It's been actually a long time. So I think it's our turn. I think it's Sacramento, California's turn to make it to the playoffs.

OMAR RODRIGUEZ
IT worker

I think they're gonna do fine ... I really, really think that with this new group that they have or some of the players that they're trying to bring in, they'll be doing better than they did last year.

STAN HUTCHINSON
psychologist

For a young team, you can't underestimate the value of a coach. And I'm not sure how proven Luke Walton is, and considering his legal difficulties ... probably not the best prognosis.

MARTHA GOMEZ
stay-at-home mom

The same as they've done the last few years: Not as great. 'Cause they just can't get it together.

Día de los Muertos FIESTA

Fri., Oct. 11, 2019
6:00 – 10:00 pm

TICKETS: $10 ADVANCE • $20 DOOR

- Opening of "El Arte de las Alamas: Día de los Muertos 2019," a new exhibit featuring original art & contemporary altar installations by California artists John S. Huerta, Oscar Magallanes & Raul Mejia
- Mayahuel food, drinks & snacks for sale
- Sugar skulls workshops ($15 fee)
- Performance by Maquilli Tonatiuh Aztec Dancers
- Mercado de los Muertos featuring local vendors
- Live music by Maya & Dinorah Klingler
- Costume contest
- Free face painting & activities for kids
- More fun for all ages — don't miss it!

Advance tickets on sale at: CALIFORNIAMUSEUM.ORG/FIESTA-2019

CALIFORNIA MUSEUM