

Best costume you've seen?

Somebody made their own Jack-in-the-Box. ... Since it was custom-made, it was very comfortable and easy to use.

I always love to see something more like fun and cutesy ... There's Dorothy and Toto, but it's a full-grown man in a little fuzzy suit.

My wife with an eye patch and a scarf. Because she got a scratched cornea. So when we got to the pharmacist, she just asked if she could have an eye patch like a pirate ... Our grandsons loved it.

Our neighbors. The mom was the Queen of Hearts, the dad was the Mad Hatter, the daughter was Alice and the twin boys were Tweedle Dum and Tweedle Dee.

Last year, my daughter and her family went as emojis. It was simple to make. There's five of 'em so they could all have a different one.

My friend Cassie, she's going for the original Jurassic Park costume theme. ... Her husband's going to be going with the guy from Seinfeld who's the one that snuck out the stuff. Her dog is actually going as the Barbasol can.
