

ASKED AT DOGO:

What matters most in local primary?

ABIGAIL WEST
grant technician

Rent control. I'm not following one particular candidate because there's so many.

ALISON BRINLEE
analyst

It's not really politics, but I just want someone that cares about the people of the city, low-income and high-income. I know that's hard to achieve.

ANGELIQUE PILIOTIS housing finance assistant

Locally, I think that our homeless issue is probably at the forefront of Sacramento right now. ... They need to focus in on what the real issue is, which is a dependency issue and a mental health issue.

ADENIYI AYOADE
administrative law judge

Educational policy, the environmental policy, [and] we still need to figure out what we're doing with transportation in California.

reporter

Voter turnout. I want to see people get engaged, people paying attention and people actually taking action.

attorney

I might use the term redevelopment. But really, I would say continuing to improve downtown and the outlying areas.
