

We are suspending publication (at least temporarily)

The coronavirus pandemic is disrupting all our lives.

Following the guidance of public health officials, events large and small are being canceled. As a result, many of our advertisers and sponsors are pulling back on their support, too.

To keep you informed about the coronavirus outbreak, as well as all the other important local news, we need your help. Please donate at newsreview.com/sacramento/donate.

In less than one week, we have lost more than 50% of our advertising revenue and we can't publish without it.

We are not corporate media.
We are 100% independent and need your help to continue reporting local stories and publishing your voices.

Any amount will help resume publishing.
